LET YOURSELF REST

If you're exhausted, rest.

If you don't feel like starting a new project, don't.

If you don't feel the urge to make something new, just rest in the beauty of the old, the familiar, the known.

If you don't feel like talking, stay silent.

If you're fed up with the news, turn it off.

If you want to postpone something until tomorrow, do it.

If you want to do nothing, let yourself do nothing today.

Feel the fullness of the emptiness, the vastness of the silence, the sheer life in your unproductive moments.

Time does not always need to be filled.

You are enough, simply in your being.

Jeff Foster

MAY RECIPE

CHICKEN PARMESAN CASSEROLE

Ingredients

4 boneless, skinless chicken breasts (pounded to even thickness)
2½ cups of your favorite marinara sauce
1½ cups shredded mozzarella cheese, divided
Half a bunch of fresh basil, finely chopped
1 cup Parmesan cheese
½ cup panko bread crumbs
2 tablespoons finely chopped fresh parsley
½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon pepper
1 pinch dried oregano
Cayenne pepper to taste (optional)

Directions

Coat the bottom of a baking dish (8 x 8) with the marinara sauce, spreading it into an even layer. Sprinkle ½ cup of the shredded mozzarella cheese over the sauce. Sprinkle the finely chopped basil evenly over the cheese.
Pat the chicken breasts dry with paper towel. Season both sides evenly with salt, pepper and the cayenne pepper (if using)
Place the seasoned chicken breasts in the baking dish on top of the mozzarella and basil layer.
In a small bowl, combine the panko bread crumbs, grated Parmesan cheese, chopped fresh parsley and oregano. Mix well and top the casserole.
Cook at 375 degrees for one hour.
